All Documents Just a Click Away

Hassle free access to all the necessary documents

The Bill of Lading is a shipment receipt about the goods received at the desired destination. It is a legal document between a shipper and the carrier. The details of the type, quantity and destination of the goods are stated on the bill. Invoice packing list states the number of goods and their value. It is important to have a Packing List when the goods arrive on the designated destination for custom clearance.
